Cornwall Chronicle

Spring Garden, St. James

Absconded, about the 24th of August last from Mr. John Dow's settlement, Don side, near York Estate, in the parish of Trelawny, a mulatto slave named TOM, alias TOM DAWSON, by trade a carpenter, about 6 ft. high, 20 years of age, slim made, is very plausible, and will no doubt pass as free. He is well known in the county of Cornwall, having been the Subscriber's waiting boy a number of years, as also in the parish of St. Ann and Spanish Town, having waiting on G. F. COWARD, Esq., some considerable time. He was accompanied by a Negro boy belonging to Mr. DOW, about 5 ft. high, named STERNE, alias JOHN, well known in the vicinity of St. Ann Bay. Ten Pounds reward will be given on the apprehension of Tom, and one Doubloon on that of Sterne, and lodging them in any gaol or workhouse, or lodging them to Mr. Dow, Don side, near York Estate, in the parish of Trelawny, or to the Subscribers as above. DAVID KERR.

Cornwall Chronicle

Westmoreland Workhouse

Absconded, from the above workhouse on Saturday evening about the 2nd inst., a sambo man, named JOHN. He is about 5 ft. 6 or 7 in. high, is very plausible, speaks good English, and says he belongs to Mr. JOHN BANKS at the Caymanas or Bay Honduras. He was sent in as a runaway, but being very sick in a dropsical state, he was ordered by the Doctor to be taken out of chains till he was better. A Pistole reward will be given for lodging him in any gaol or workhouse or bringing him to the Subscriber. JACOB PESSOA.

Black River Workhouse

Made his escape, from the above workhouse on the 12th inst. by breaking a link of the chain, a Negro man named JAMES, a creole, 5 ft. 4 in. high, marked E L on his right shoulder, and belongs to Mr. DREW STRETCH. A Pistole reward will be paid for lodging him in any gaol or workhouse by applying to the Subscriber. F. SANDCROFT.

15 February 1813

Cornwall Chronicle

Gazeebo, Westmoreland

Run away, from the Subscriber on the 14th of December last, a Negro man named DICK, of the Chamba country, about 5 ft. 8 in. high. Has yellow eyes and complexion, with his country marks in both temples, and a few smallpox pits in his face. Has been marked twice on both his shoulders, but one is obscured. He is one of a gang bought of a Mr. ISAAC BARROW, who brought them from Kingston, and it is said he belonged formerly to Woodsall's estate in St. Ann. Whoever will apprehend said Negro, and lodge him in gaol, or deliver him to me at the above place, shall receive a Pistole reward from DANIEL HILTON.

3 March 1813

Cornwall Chronicle

St. Ann. Workhouse

Ran away, from the driver this day, a creole Negro named BUDGET, alias HENRY, 5 ft. 11 in. high, stout made, no mark, formerly belonged to JOHN BLAGROVE, Esq., Cardiff-Hall Estate (where it is supposed he is gone) [sic], but sentenced to this workhouse for life. Whoever returns the said Negro, or lodges him in any workhouse, and give information to the Subscriber, shall receive two Pistoles reward. JOHN KENDRICK.

10 March 1813

Cornwall Chronicle

Porto Bello

Ran away, from the Subscriber, a Negro man named POMPEY, of a very dark complexion, about 5 ft. high, marked on the left shoulder ML, \diamond on top. Whoever will bring him to the Subscriber, or give any information respecting him, will be thankfully rewarded. G. LAWSON.

14 April 1813

Cornwall Chronicle

St. George Workhouse

COVENTRY, a Papa [Popo], 5 ft. 6 in. high, marked E D on right shoulder, to Golden Grove

Estate; was sent in from that property for punishment on the 22nd December 1811, made his escape on the 12th June 1812, and has since been apprehended on Belfield Estate, in St. Mary, and sent in as a runaway.

22 April 1813

Cornwall Chronicle

Montego Bay

Half-a-Joe reward. Ran away, from the Subscriber, a Negro named MANCHESTER, belonging to Mrs. CATHERINE BINNS. He was seen lurking about the Bogue Estate. It is probable he is about Mount Pleasant or Childermas Estate. The above reward will be paid on his being lodged in any workhouse or gaol, or being return to ASA W. WILDER.

10 December 1813

Cornwall Chronicle

Westmoreland

Ran away, a mulatto woman named MARY, or MARY FITZGERALD. A reward of two Pistoles will be paid for taking her up, and delivering her to the Subscriber, or lodging her in a workhouse. DAVID FINLAYSON.

7 July 1815

Cornwall Chronicle

Montego Bay

Ran away, about ten days ago, a Negro man named WILL, about 5 ft. 9 in. high, of a dark complexion, and slim made. It is supposed that he will endeavour to get off the island the fleet; all masters of vessels are cautioned from carrying said Negro off. A liberal reward will be paid to any person giving information where he is to be found, or lodge him in any gaol or workhouse, upon application to the Subscriber. RAYNES WAITE.

23 July 1815

Cornwall Chronicle

Latium

Two Doubloons reward. Ran away, from the Subscriber, a Negro man named BEN, a carpenter by trade, marked R O on both shoulders. He formerly belonged to RICHARD OTTO, afterwards to COLIN GRANT, and by him sold to JOHN McCLELLAND a carpenter, Montego Bay. He is about 5 ft. 4 in. high, dark complexion, is very artful, and is supposed to have procured a false ticket, by which means he may endeavour to pass as free. He is well known in Westmoreland and Hanover, where has been repeatedly taken up for the same offense. The above reward will be paid to any one apprehending and lodging him in any gaol or workhouse in the island, and a further reward of twenty Pounds on proving to conviction by whom harboured, will be paid on application to Mr. Joseph Dawes, merchant, Montego Bay, or here to WILLIAM CLARKE.

8 September 1815

Cornwall Chronicle

Windsor Lodge, St. James

Absconded, from Grange Hill in Westmoreland on or about the 12th of June, a Negro man named WILL, of the Congo country, and having his country marks on the face. He is marked HKPC on his shoulder, on his cheeks, and on his breasts, though they may be somewhat obliterated. He is about 5 ft. 3 or 4 in. high, is stoutish made, and has an impediment in his speech, and is very artful. He is a carpenter by trade, and is well known in the parish of Hanover and Westmoreland, having worked with Mr. J. Falconer upwards of six years. He has a wife on Cariwina Estate, in the latter parish, where it is supposed he may be skulking. A reward of one Doubloon will be given, upon lodging him in any workhouse by C. McNish, Savanna la Mar, J. Fray, Montego Bay, or the Subscriber. JOSEPH CAREY.

26 December 1815

Cornwall Chronicle

Trelawny Workhouse

A Pistole Reward. Absconded, on Thursday 21st inst., JAMES, a creole Negro man, for some years past has been a driver here; he is a likely plausible fellow, of yellow complexion, 5 ft. 5-1/2 in. high, marked on his left shoulder R R, \diamond on top. He was seen at Berrydale Estate, and is supposed to be gone to Alex. McIntosh, Esq.'s, settlement, where he has a wife and child. The above reward will be paid on lodging him in any Workhouse, by JAMES HUNTER, sup.

1816

5 January 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Montego Bay

Ran away, on the 1st January, the following Negroes, namely SIMON, GEORGE, JEM, CHESTER, and ADAM. Any person taking up the same, and bringing them to the Subscriber, or giving information where they may be found, will be liberally rewarded. JOHN FICHETT.³

30 January 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Lucea

Ran away, from the Subscriber on the 27th inst., a [mulatto] brown man named JAMES CROOKS, by trade a saddler, and is well known in the parishes of Hanover and St. James. Any person apprehending him shall receive, on application to the Subscriber, a suitable reward. All captains of ships are hereby cautioned not to take the above person off the Island, as the law will be strictly enforced against them. GEORGE HOPKINS.

31 January 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Lucea

Ran away, on the 10th instant, a Negro woman named FLORA, a creole, of a yellow complexion, about 21 years of age, marked on her right shoulder A M C, and carried away her child named AMELIA, thirteen months old. She has her mother living in Kingston, and is very artful. Any person lodging her in any workhouse will receive eight Dollars reward, by applying to the store of LEE & McCALLUM.

1 March 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Small Field

Ranaway, from the Subscriber, about the 26th of December last, a Negro man named GEORGE, a Congo, about 25 years of age, and 5 ft. 8 in. high, a little pitted with the small pox. On lodging him in any gaol or workhouse, a suitable reward will be given, on application to the Subscriber, at this place, or Montego Bay. DUN. MACFARLANE.

7 June 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Ranaway, from Aloo, near Dry Harbour, St. Ann, a Negro woman named AMY, a creole. She is very black and slim, has a mole under chin, and is well-known at Montego Bay and Falmouth, as she was born at the former place; she is very artful and it is likely she may have procured a false ticket. She ran away in company with a mulatto slave man named WILLIAM CARR, who is a tailor by trade, and sometimes works as a sailor on board of droggers; he passes himself as free, but belongs to Mrs. SPARKS a brown woman, at Montego Bay. Whoever takes up the said Negro woman named Amy, and lodges her in any workhouse, shall receive a suitable reward by applying to Mr. D. Sutherland, Falmouth; Mr. Samuel Anderson, Montego Bay; or the Subscriber, at Dry Harbour. BEN. HENDERSON.

JOHN FINCHETT.

26 July 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Montego Bay

Runaway, from the Subscriber on Monday the 8th instant, a Negro woman named MYRTILLA; she is lame of the left leg, and well known in the neighbourhood. Any person lodging her in any workhouse shall receive a Pistole reward, or two Doubloons on proving to conviction by whom she is harboured. WILLIAM FARQUHARSON.

28 August 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Belle-Vue, Trelawny

Absented herself from this place, the early part of the present month, a stout, healthy, young black woman named DINAH, late the property of Dr. W. M. SPENCE, from whom she was purchased; supposed to be harboured about Montego Bay or Lucea, having family connexions in both towns. Any person or persons lodging her in any gaol or workhouse, shall receive a Doubloon reward, on application to W. F. HOLT.

6 September 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Ranaway, about three weeks past, a Negro man named WILLIAM (well known by the name of QUASHIE at Falmouth) [sic]. He was formerly a cook at Robert's tavern; tall and stout, one of his legs swelled with a scar or sore on the ankle. Four Dollars reward will be given on lodging him in any workhouse, by application to H. I. ISAACS, Montego Bay, or in Kingston to M. Shannon.

11 September 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Hine's Lodge

Absented herself from the Subscriber, early in July inst., a Negro woman named ANNE, much pock-pitted, about 38 years of age, yellowish complexion, 5 ft. high, is very plausible, lately the property of Mr. WETZLAR, Montego Bay, from whom she was purchased in December last; supposed to be harboured about Montego Bay or its vicinity. Any person or persons lodging her in any gaol or workhouse, shall receive a Half-Joe reward, on application to JOHN HINE.

17 September 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Lucea

Ranaway, from the Subscriber, on Wednesday last, a Negro boy about 16 years of age, 5 ft. high, black complexion, had on when he left home, sheeting trowsers, york-stripe jacket, and a new striped holland shirt; very plausible and may perhaps attempt to pass as free; his name is JAMES. Any person apprehending and lodging him in any gaol or workhouse, or bringing him to the Subscriber, shall receive One Doubloon reward. R. RUSEA.

21 September 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Ranaway, since February last, from Dundee Estate, Hanover, a creole Negro man, named ROBIN. He is an artful fellow, and will change his name, 5 ft. 6 in. or 8 in. high, has an impediment in his speech, and when speaking fast stutters; rather lame from being knock kneed, marked on both shoulders WM, \diamond on top. He is supposed to be harboured either at Mr. Malcolm's Mount-Pelier, or Alexandria, where he has connexions. Five Pounds reward will be paid by the overseer of the Estate, for apprehending the said Negro, or lodging him in any of the different workhouse. (Hanover) [sic].

8 October 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Richmond Hill

Absented herself from Richmond Hill settlement, in September last, a Negro woman, named MARGARET, of a yellow complexion and stout made. She is marked EP on both shoulders, is very plausible, and passes under the name of SAMBO MARY. She is supposed to be harboured in the neighbourhood of Black River. Any person apprehending or bringing her to the Subscriber shall be liberally rewarded. S. L. PETGRAVE.

8 October 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Armagh, Trelawny

One Doubloon Reward

Ranaway, on the 18th August last, a creole Negro named ALLICK, about 17 years of age, of a slender make, with some yellow spots on his face. It is suspected he has gone to St. Elizabeth, in company with the servants of some Gentleman who attended the Falmouth Races. The above reward will be paid on his being delivered to the Subscriber, or lodged in any workhouse. THOMAS WILLIS.

26 October 1816

Cornwall Chronicle

Montego Bay

A young creole Negro man, named GEORGE, nearly 6 ft. high, has absented himself from the Office of this paper. He formerly belonged to ELIZABETH RENAUD, of this town, where he is well known, but having a brother and some other connexions in Spanish Town, it is supposed he may be lurking thereabout. A Pistole reward will be paid on lodging him in the gaol or workhouse. (SHERGOLD & GUTHRIE) [sic].

Cornwall Chronicle

St. James Workhouse

Escaped, from out of one of the Cells of this place, by breaking through the partition thereof, and climbing over the roof of the Workhouse, some time in the night of the 29th of last month, that noted villain named MITCHELL, a Munding, 5 ft. 8 in. high, has his country marks on his temples and cheeks, skin very black, brand-marked W on both shoulders, and said he belonged to the Retrieve Estate, Westmoreland. Also escaped from the Drivers, on the 31st of the said month, by breaking the collar from off his neck, a stout powerful Negro man, named RICHARD, a Munding, 5 ft. 10 in. high, no visible brand-mark, but has his country marks the same as Mitchell, and said he belonged to Mr. HECTOR FRASER. Both of these Negroes were, it is said, accomplices in breaking open negro houses in divers places, and committing many shameful robberies before they were apprehended and sent here. It is strongly suspected that as one of Mr. Westmore's cooper Negroes, who is hired to Catherine Hall Estate, and reported to be a brother of Mitchell's, he and Richard will endeavour to get themselves harboured at the said estate. Two Pistoles reward is hereby offered to whoever will apprehend the above-mentioned Negroes, and delivering them at this, or any other workhouse. WILLIAM BALL, sup.

3 September 1817

Cornwall Chronicle

Montego Bay

Two Doubloons reward for apprehending, and lodging in any gaol or workhouse, a Negro man named MATT, who formerly belonged to Mr. DALE, of Barbary Hill wharf, in Hanover; then to Mr. JOHN SANDLANDS, and afterwards to Mr. PETER HOWDON, from whom the Subscriber purchased him. He is of a coal black complexion, about 5 ft. 5 in. high, very stout made, and has a scar on the right side of his face. It is supposed he has been hiring himself on board of droggers and to fishermen, about Salt Maria and Falmouth. Also, one Doubloon reward for apprehending and lodging in any workhouse, a Negro man named DAMON, who formerly belonged to Mr. VINCENT's estate, and then to the Peak-Penn, in Hanover. He is slim made, about 5 ft. 3 or 4 in. high, and has remarkable light coloured eyes. W. ALLEN.

22 September 1817
Cornwall Chronicle
 Lucea

Ranaway, in August last, an Ebo Negro man named WILLIAM, by trade a cooper, the property of COLIN GRANT, late of the parish of Hanover, deceased; about 5 ft. 5 in. high, yellow complexion, has got a mark on his cheek supposed his country mark, pretty stout made, apparently about 35 years old. Five Pounds reward will be paid to any one securing him, and ten Pounds on proving to conviction by whom harboured. CUTHB. POTTS.

26 September 1817
Cornwall Chronicle
 Trelawny

Ranaway, from Greenfield Estate, a sambo man named JOHN, or JOHN HALL GALLIMORE, 24 years of age, rather tall, of a mild demeanour; he can work as a tailor; his occupation was cattle-man. Also, some time before, TRYALL, or JAMES DOUGLAS, a creole Negro, short and rather stout; 22 years of age; he plays on the fiddle. And, OLIVER, a creole Negro, promising to be stout, and middle-sized, 19 years of age; aquiline nose. Whoever will give such information to JAMES MUNRO, at the Rock, as may lead to the return of any of these to the Estate, shall be handsomely rewarded.

JOHN, an Eboe, to Mr. HUGSY, no visible brand-mark. 1/29

WILLIAM, a Chamba, to a Mr. MENZIES, marked apparently T P on right shoulder. 2/22

⁵ This term likely refers to plantar's warts. Masters apparently developed their own cures, and presumably the slaves did as well. Here is one known treatment for "crab-yaws" from 1752: "Colonel Barclay says, put hog-plum tree bark in a pot to boil with water till strong; then place it over a gentle fire, & keep the feet in it as hot as can be bore for nine days and nights, and it will effectually cure the crab-yaws that he cures all his Negroes so"; Douglas Hall, In Miserable Slavery: Thomas Thistlewood in Jamaica, 1750-86 (Kingston, Jamaica: University of the West Indies Press, 1999), p.38.

CHARLES, a creole, to Mr. COHEN, no visible brand-mark, has lost part of the small toe of his right foot. 3/2

JOHN, a creole of St. Domingo, to Mr. CLARKE, no brand-mark, has a sore on the great toe of his left foot. 3/8
