

THE DANIEL DOUGLAS AND CAMPBELL FAMILIES

September 11, 2004. Myrtle Bridges

The Daniel Douglas and Campbell Families

Daniel Douglas, son of Robt. and Margaret McCutcheon Douglas was born abt. 1735 Glasgow, Lanark, Scot., died 1816 Richmond County, No. Carolina Daniel m. Effie McLean. They settled originally in what is now the Laurinburg, N.C. area, migrating to Chesterfield Co., S. Carolina, then Richmond County, N.C. abt.1784.

Their children: Angus Douglas, born 1759 Scotland, died June 30, 1819 m. 1793 Sarah Curry; Donald Douglas, born 1762 died 1812; Christian Douglas, b. abt. 1765 Scotland died 1839. She married John Campbell; Catharine Douglas born abt. 1769 married unknown McRae; Mary Douglas, born abt. 1771 m. unknown McCaskill [May have been Peter McCaskill d. 1827]; Flora Douglas, born January 10, 1781 Richmond Co., N.C. died September 3, 1850 Neshoba County, Miss.; Margaret Douglas, b. June 3, 1788 d. Jan 12, 1860, m. John Graham Wilkinson; Duncan Douglas, b. Sept 6, 1790 Richmond Co., N.C., died July 27, 1858, Chesterfield County, S.C., m. [1] Margaret McLaurin, [2] Mary Hancock; Effie Douglas, b. 1797 m.[1] Murdock McDonald and [2] Malcom Smith.

Source: "Scattered Seed - Genealogical Research Data of Southeastern North Carolina" - Bridges Source of McDonald data: Carol Shrader

John & Christian Campbell of Richmond County, NC

In 1793 John, James & William Campbell emigrated from Skye, Scotland on the vessel "Scotia" and traveled to Richmond County [now Scotland] in N.C. At first they settled near the communities of Laurinburg and Wagram. John Campbell, born 1769 married Christian Douglass, the daughter of Daniel Douglass and Effie McLean. In 1793, during the Voyage from Skye Christian gave birth to a son whom they named Daniel Douglass Campbell. John and Christian Campbell's four daughters were born in North Carolina. The oldest was Mary, born 1794, married ... McLeod. Mary was the mother of Judge Daniel McLeod in Walton County in Florida; Sarah, born abt. 1795, married Hugh McLean. The 1860 Census of Walton County, Fla. shows: Hugh McLean 60, b. N.C., Sarah McLean 60, Nancy McLean 28, Abigail McLean 24, and Christian McLean. 26; Jeanette Campbell was born 1796; Christian, named after her mother and was born in August 1797. She married Neill McLennan, Sr. in c.1813. Christian died 1871 in Texas.

John Campbell died Oct.1808 at the age of 39 and is buried in McGill Cemetery near Wagram. His young wife Christian, may have married a McPhail after John's death. (last will and testament of Daniel Douglass). John's brother, James continued west with his family to Mississippi. The third brother, William Campbell settled in North Carolina. There he had a son, Angus Campbell born in 1805, who married Catherine Morrison, the daughter of Malcolm Morrison and Margaret Douglass.

Daniel D. Campbell m. 1828 Nancy Anna McLean, daughter of Daniel K. McLean. It is said that in the year 1818 he and Neill McLennan, his brother-in-law, the husband of Christian Campbell, rode out of Richmond County, N.C. destined for Pensacola, Fla. Daniel and his mother Christian were granted first and second land grants in Walton County, Fla. The 1860 Census of Walton County, Florida shows: Daniel D. Campbell 66, b. on the sea, Nancy 52, b. N.C., John L. 27, b. Fla., Floria Ann 23, Sarah 19, Margaret 16, Jennitha 15, Abigail A. 15, Nancy 11, Issabell 9, William 17, Angus 6, and Eliza 6. Daniel and Nancy's son William L. Campbell m. Ellen Marzee Gage and is said to have left Florida for Texas between 1872 and 1874. William and Ellen Campbell had three daughters: Margaret Elizabeth Campbell, b. Feb. 9, 1874, Sarah Jeanette Campbell, b. Sept. 12, 1875 and Mary Ellen Campbell, b. Jan. 5, 1876.

Neill McLennan was a son of John McLennan and Catherine McKinnon. By 1839 he was a Texas Ranger and living in Bosque Valley, TX. Neill and Christian McLennan had six children: John McLennan, b. abt. 1814, m. Cora Wilson; Christian McLennan, b. abt. 1815, m. Neill Robinson. Neill R. was killed by a horse; Catharine McLennan, b. abt. 1818 m. Lee R. Davis; Neill Jr. McLennan, b. abt. 1820 m. Dorotha Snell; Duncan McLennan, born abt. 1830, m. Rebecca Snell; Locklin McLennan, born 1835, Florida d.1860 unm.
Source: Journal of the Clan Campbell Society Spring 1991 - Vol. 18 p. 12-18

Additional News Clippings

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 06 April 1905

Daniel Campbell, of DeFuniak, and J. L. Douglass, of Euche Valley attend Florida Presbytery yesterday morning

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 08 Feb. 1906

Dr. C. B. McKinnon is attending court in Andalusia this week. Mrs. McKinnon has gone to DeFuniak to visit her parents, Judge and Mrs. Daniel Campbell, and attend the Chautauqua.

See: The Pensacola journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 14 July 1907

A LEADING LAW FIRM

Daniel Campbell & Son-A brief Sketch of Judge Campbell's Distinguished Career. (includes photo)

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 21 July 1912

Judge Daniel Campbell returned from New Orleans, where he had been to see his son, Mr. G. B. Campbell hoping to bring him home, but the physicians thought it best for Mr. Campbell to remain in the infirmary a few days longer.

We are glad to note Mr. Campbell's wound is healing nicely, though not so rapidly as his friends wish.

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 24 March 1914

DEATH OF MRS. JOHNNIE M'LEOD

She passed away Sunday night at the age of 81 years and will be buried today.

Mrs. Jennie McLeod died Sunday night between eight and nine o'clock, at the home of her son-in-law, D.D. Douglas, with whom she has lived for many years. The deceased had reached the age of eighty-one years, but for several years has been in poor health.

Besides Mr. Douglas, she leaves three grand-children, Clyde, Jennie and Angus Douglas of this place, two brothers, Judge Daniel Campbell, of DeFuniak Springs, and Mr. John A. Campbell of Geneva, Alabama, a sister Mrs. C. Harrison, of Milton, and many relatives in this place and Walton count, having descended from the Campbells and Morrisons, prominent families of Walton County.

The remains will be buried in the Euchee Valley Cemetery, near DeFuniak Springs, this morning at eleven o'clock, the funeral being conducted by Rev. R.Q. Baker and Lynn R. Walker, of DeFuniak Springs.

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 08 Dec. 1914

WIDELY KNOWN LADY EXPIRES AT DeFUNIAK

Mrs. Daniel Campbell, who had relatives throughout West Florida, Died After Quite an illness.

Mrs. Daniel Campbell aged 65 years, died at DeFuniak Springs yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, and the funeral will take place this afternoon at what is known as the Old Valley cemetery in Walton County near DeFuniak Springs.

The deceased was the wife of Judge Daniel Campbell, who survives her, and she is also survived by four sons, three daughters, three sisters and relatives throughout West Florida, several close kinsmen residing in Pensacola, and these local relatives yesterday received word of the aged lady's demise shortly after she had died. She was a direct descendant of the old Scotch families who many years ago moved to and took up their residences in Walton County.

See The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 22 April 1916 CAMPBELL-McKINNON WEDDING IN MARIANNA.

The marriage of Miss Mary Campbell and Mr. John McKinnon was solemnised at the residence of Judge Daniel Campbell at DeFuniak Wednesday

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 03 Oct. 1919

DAN DOUGLAS

Dan Douglas, 55 years old, for many years a resident of Pensacola, died yesterday at Westville. He will be buried this afternoon at the Euchee Valley cemetery, near DeFuniak. Mr. Douglas is survived by two sons, Clyde and Angus Douglas, one daughter Miss Jennie Douglas, six brothers and one sister.

The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 09 Jan. 1921

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF KNOX OBSERVED

Special Services to be Held Today Commemorating Founding of Church

The tenth anniversary of the organization of the Knox Presbyterian church will be observed in the services at the church today.

Ten year ago the Knox church was organized. It grew out of a mission Sabbath school held in a store room on Stoddard Ave. it was organized into a church Jan. 8, 1911, by the election of elders and deacons. There were 59 charter members: Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Morrison, Miss Kate Morrison, Miss Sallie McLean, Mrs. W.L. Morgan, Angus Douglas, Mrs. James M. Gillis, Grace E. Graham (others include surnames Morrison, Calhoun)

A complete history of the church from its beginning as a mission Sabbath School will be read and the names of all charter members living in the city will be called. After the history of the church has been read and approved it will be published and a copy given to every family of the church.

Also see The Pensacola Journal. (Pensacola, Fla.), 10 Jan. 1921
PASTOR McILWAIN DETAILS THE HISTORY OF KNOX PRESBYTERIAN.

(Dan D. Douglas and Master Angus Douglas, were members.) (Research of Bridges)

This page created September 11, 2004

Revised April 8, 2018 by Myrtle N. Bridges

Edited January 16, 2025 by William Douglas for the Douglas Archives